

Auction Site Safety Rules

- 1 This auction site is a dangerous place with moving equipment, flammable, corrosive, pressurized and other dangerous substances present. Please use extreme caution as Ritchie Bros. Auctioneers is not responsible for any injuries sustained or damages to or loss of property occurring from any cause.
- 2 Immediately report all incidents (i.e. injuries, spills, property damage and near misses) to the Yard Manager or any representative of Ritchie Bros. Auctioneers.
- 3 Do not operate or demonstrate equipment unless you are certain you are competent and qualified to do so. If you decide to operate or demonstrate equipment you do so at your own risk, and are responsible for any damage that occurs. Please ensure your surrounding area is clear prior to operating or demonstrating equipment and always maintain a lookout.
- 4 Any person under the influence of alcohol, drugs or medication that impairs cognition is strictly prohibited from entering the auction site and operating or demonstrating equipment.
- 5 We strongly recommend that children are not brought on-site. If you decide to bring a child on-site, they must be accompanied by a responsible adult and remain under adult supervision at all times. Anyone under the age of 18 is strictly prohibited from operating and being in or on any piece of equipment, machinery or vehicle.
- 6 Prior to commencing with the performance of any services, contractors/service providers must operate in strict accordance with all applicable laws and regulations.

Unreserved Commitment To Safety

