Meet the team

RUBÉN ALONSO

Territory Manager

Residing in Cambrils (Tarragona), I've been with the company since July 2018. My background is not in machinery; I studied Administration and Business Management. Most of my professional life was dedicated to the hospitality sector. I started as Head of Administration and progressed through various roles to become a Deputy Hotel Manager. I transitioned industries five years ago when the opportunity to work at Ritchie Bros. arose. In my first year, I was part of the TTM program, a training initiative where you learn everything necessary to work at Ritchie Bros. as a TM, regardless of your prior sector. Currently, I am the Territory Manager for the northeastern region of Spain.

For me, the great potential that sets Ritchie Bros. clearly apart from other companies is that it is the world's number one company in equipment management and value-added services. This global leadership for over 65 years instills confidence in our clients with every operation we undertake. In addition to the inventory of equipment for sale, the speed and convenience we offer to customers are unparalleled in the market.
