MEET
THE TEAM

ALESSIO AIELLO TERRITORY MANAGER

I started working at Ritchie Bros. in January 2023 and my first auction has just ended. I am the Territory Manager for the Lombardia region, but throughout my working career I have always been involved in the sale of construction and industrial machinery, both in person and online.

As a Territory Manager, my days revolve around visiting customers, inspecting equipment and finding the best solution for that specific company's need. The main advantage for those who buy with Ritchie Bros. is the ability to purchase a vehicle quickly and easily and putting it to work immediately. Ritchie Bros. is unique because it not only connects a global network of buyers and sellers, but also allows its employees to be part of a multinational reality: every day I am in contact with colleagues from all over the world and we exchange information and advice to support each other and provide the best experience for our customers.
